Note: From 1961-1973, Hondo (nom de plume, or alias, or AKA Peter Cedarstacker) wrote a social satire column for the Comfort News. The fictional town of Cedar Creek and all of its characters eventually became the real town of Luckenbach and all of its characters (and Luckenbach has some real characters!) The MOON reserves a special corner for Peter Cedarstacker, Writer, as a corner of wit and human insight for us today.

CEDAR CREEK CLIPPINGS

The Cedar Creek Chamber of Commerce met Wed. at the Park Side Road. I was with my new tub on the refreshment committee. After the meetin' we all took part in "happiness." Everyone talked about the subject he likes best. Mr. Spite complained about abusive taxation till he was thoroughly vexed.

Mr. Schoeffekoeter repined that the wage and hour law put him out of business and the Jones boy (no kin to Dow) protested that he couldn't get by on $4.00 per hour and pay for his gold TV antennae.

Mr. Wurstbottom made unhappy noises about our President till it was shameful and he was happy.

Mrs. Gutowsky, VP of "Parents Are Plannin Assn." (PAPA) got her happiness when she denounced the topless swim suit. "Our society has decayed, declined, dwindled and degenerated because of the topless bathing suit," she bubbled. "Our sex rate is increasing," she said, stompin' her left tennis shoe.

Santiago Smith got great satisfaction outa protestin' the war and pickin' on the administration. He talked settin' down. That's where he shines.

Mesdames Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Schoeffekoeter found happiness in their mournful monotones concernin' cancer, arthritis, and Mrs. Jones too-blue hair. Mama wondered aloud who'd be the next pallbearers.

Lenny Birmingham Jones didn't take part in our happiness. He just sat there and smiled. He's immune to such thinkin' because of the many little unpleasantries he's been inoculated with durin' his long life. He's colored.

Walkin' home lookin' at the ground I felt like we'd done somethin' constructive by solvin' all the country's problematics. My shoulders felt lighter. Mama gathered the eggs and I fed the hogs.

I don't know why but watchin' the hogs eat reminded me of how many kinds of happiness there are and that too many folks take part in ugly happiness.

"I believe that life is based on belief-systems. The Way I see it, folks just need to have something that they can really believe in."
